Many Stocks Show Declines at Opening.

TRADING EXTREMELY LIGHT

Balkan Complications Cause of Uneasiness Abroad.

LIST STRONGER LATER IN DAY

Canadian Pacific Weakest of Standard Railways-Sharp Slump in Beet Sugar.

NEW YORK, November 4.-Aside from the Hill issues all the leading stocks opened lower today. Canadian Pacific was down a point, with fractional losses for St. Paul, Southern Pacific, Steel and Amalgamated. Trading was extremely light, with all indications of a dull day. Prices were practically stationary throughout the first hour on a minimum of business, except Canadian Pacific, BethlehemSteelcom. 451/2 451/2 which added to its initial loss.

Stocks were increasingly dull and decidedly weak in the early part of today's session. The Balkan complications caused further uneasiness abroad and the eve of the presidential election was largely responsible for the apathy shown here.

LONDON STOCKS.

LONDON, November 4.- The stock market was inclined to ease off during the attitude in the Balkan situation. American securities opened a fraction lower. A rally followed on covering, but selling was renewed later and the list declined. under the lead of Canadian Pacific. At noon prices ranged from unchanged to two points below parity. In the afternoon Canadian Pacific recovered a point of its early loss, but trading was limited in others and the market closed quiet.

FULFILL AN OLD PROMISE.

Foreign Correspondence of The Star. YORK, England, October 25, 1912. a young emigrant to her dying mother-Soon after his marriage in 1876 William Atkinson decided to leave his nativa Yorkshire and try his fortune in the new

Selby. In taking leave of the emigrants Mrs. Atkinson, senior, who was then lying ill, extracted a promise from her daughter-in-law that she would erect a tombstone over the grave of her husband's parents after their death. Shortly after The emigrants eventually settled at

Matteawan, N. Y., where they prospered the erection of a suitable memorial. The masons completed the work in the presence of Mr. and Mrs. Atkinson, who were greatly affected as they witnessed the fulfillment of their dying parents' last wish, Shortly afterward they left Selby for
